INTRODUCTION.

I.

Is the third division of the Samyutta-Nikāya shorter or longer than the second? It is by no means easy to answer this question, as this division occupies 91 leaves against 96 in a Burmese MS, but 79 against 72 in one Sinhalese MS., and 61 against 58 in another. The difference may be caused by the different ways of abridging; but it seems to be excessive. The number of the lines in a leaf, which is not always uniform in the same MS., ought also to be considered. Be it as it may, in this edition, the third division is shorter than the second by 7 pages. Yet, although I endeavoured not to be long, I intended to be complete.

This division is entitled KHANDHA-VAGGO; whence it may be expected that the five Khandhas will be enumerated and referred to very often, and indeed they are so to satiety, although, in some parts, no mention is made of them, and they seem altogether left out.

II.

The reckoning of the Samyuttas in the third division is subject to some difficulties (as those we incurred in the second) arising from the fact that the first of them is not counted by some as a Samyutta; and yet it is the greatest part of the whole. The Burmese MS. states at the end that the Samyuttas in this Vaggo are as much as thirteen (terasa), while the Sinhalese MSS. announce twelve (dvādaśa) titles only, but after the enumeration of the titles of the first section, which they seem to consider as a distinct work. Moreover, they point out as being the fifth (pañcama), the sixth (chaṭṭha), and the eighth (aṭṭhama), three Samyuttas which, if the KHANDHA-VAGGO consists of thirteen Samyuttas, cannot be respectively but the sixth, the seventh, and the ninth. Therefore, what the Burmese MS. considers to be the first Samyutta is not for the Sinhalese MSS. a Samyutta. But, what might it be? If it be not a Samyutta, why is it embodied in the Samyuttanikāya? and, since it is embodied in this Collection, how ought it not to be a Samyutta?

This improper exception is owing to the extent of this first section, which comprises no less than 68 sheets out of 91, almost the two-thirds of the whole division. It is entitled Khandha (as the first of the second Nidāna), and this name was imparted to the division itself. But whilst the Nidāna-Samyutta (which is the half of the second division), is distributed into eight or nine chapters, the Khandha-Samyutta of the third division is cut up into three paññāsa (groups of fifty suttas), as it were a distinct work itself.

The following or second section (Samyutta), entitled Rādha, consisting of four chapters, is regular.

Some difficulties arise upon the third section entitled Diṭṭhi as to the internal division, but not as to its existence as a Samyutta.

The three following sections (4, 5, 6), Okkantika, Uppāda, Kāḷesa, are similar and made from one pattern, consisting each of ten suttas, which have similar titles and form. The last of them, counted the fifth in the Sinhalese MSS., cannot be but the sixth.

The next following Samyutta, entitled Sāriputta, consists also of ten suttas; it is the seventh, wrongly called the sixth in the aforesaid MSS.

The four following Samyuttas, viz., Nāga, Supanna, Gandhabba, Valāha, are of one family, especially the two first. In these, the five khandhas are not even mentioned.

The Supanna is counted the eighth by the Sinhalese MSS., but we must count it the ninth.

With the Vacchagotta (the twelfth Samyutta) the five Khandhas reappear; but they disappear soon, in the next and last Samyutta, the Jhāna (or Samādhi) which is the thirteenth.

Therefore we can and must count thirteen Samyuttas from the Khandha to the Jhāna, and, since all the Samyuttas of the whole compilation ought to form one series, and the last of the preceding division (the NIDĀNA-VAGGO) was the XXI., these become the XXII.-XXXIV. in due sequence.

III.

The divisions of each Samyutta cannot always be determined without difficulty. The Okkantika-Uppāda-Kilesa-Sāriputta (XXV.-XXVII.) are of a very plain type, consisting of one vaggio, which comprises exactly ten suttas, well distinguished in the Uddānas with which they close.

The initial Khandha (XXII.) is very regular, its three pāṇṇāsa being divided each into five vaggos of ten suttas. The sum of the suttas ought to be 150; but, it is well known, in such a case, the suttas of some vaggos exceed ten; indeed, the total number is 158. In this way, the decimal series of the suttas do not agree with the Vaggos; but it is impossible to avoid this inconvenience.

The Rādha (XXIII.), consisting of four vaggos, is also very regular; but the Ditṭhi (XXIV.) is somewhat perplexing.

A first chapter, the Sotāpattivaggo, comprising eighteen veyyākaraṇāni (or Suttantā), and seeming to be itself a work apart, is followed by four sections called peyyālo, or vāro, or gamana, of which the first is said to contain 18 Suttantā-veyyākaraṇāni, each of the others 26. But the 18 are those of Sotāpattivaggo, and the 26 are these very 18 suttantā to which 8 others are superadded. I do not perceive in what manner the three last so-called gamana differ from the first, and one from another, unless they might refer to the three times, past, present, future, which, however, are not mentioned in each gamana, but enumerated together in the fourth. Then the whole Samyutta consists of $18+18+3\times 26=114$ suttantā or veyyākaraṇāni, viz., 18 in the Sotāpattivaggo, 96 in the four gamana.—The reader will remark that in this volume I have summed only 96 of them, because I left out, by mistake, the first 18 of the second gamana, which are omitted in the Burmese MS., and enumerated^{*} by the Sinhalese MSS. in such a manner that I did not, nor, indeed, do now, clearly perceive whether they are the beginning of the second, or a recapitulation of the first. These 18 suttantā ought to be restored in the reckoning if not in the text. Let also the reader be reminded that the headings (Chapters III. IV.) put before the titles tatiya-catuttha-gamana are consequently wrong, and the numbers 3, 4, ought to be substituted to them.

The case of the Ditthi-Samyutta is more or less that of the Nāga-S., where, if we trust to the Uddāna, there are 14 suttas, but each of the four last corresponds to ten, so that the whole is 50;—of the Supaṇṇa-S., for which the Uddāna gives 10 titles, but which is said to consist of 46 suttas, because each of the four last, having same title, contains in its ample bosom ten suttas;—of the Gandhabba-S., for which the obscure and uncertain Uddāna gives 4 titles only, and seems to count hardly 10 suttas, while the number of them is said to be 112;—of the Valaha-S., which we are told has 57 suttantas, although the number of the titles is 8, corresponding to 12 texts.

The two last Samyuttas have each 55 so-called suttantas. The Uddāna of the first of them, the Vacchagotta-S., exhibits 11 titles, which, being multiplied by the number of the khandhas, produce 55 suttantas; but, as each of the 11 titles applies to 10 propositions, I do not perceive why the total should not be 550. It is to be noticed that one of the titles of this Samyutta, and the corresponding suttanta are omitted by the Sinhalese MSS., but another title is mentioned by them in the Uddāna, without being represented in the text, and this title (asambodha) differs slightly from anusambodha given in the Burmese Uddāna as the title of a suttanta which, in the text, is Anubodha. There is also a variety of reading on the fifth title. From these changes, we are permitted to infer that there was some incertitude as to the reading and the number of the terms of the Vacchagotta-Samyutta.

It is not the Khandhas which increase the number of the veyyākaraṇāni in the last Samyutta, since no mention is there made of them. The titles of the suttas are no more than 10; two of these terms are successively noticed, in four propositions, as united to or divided from the Samā-dhi; and thus the number of 55 Veyyākaraṇāni is reached by various modes of combining, with a truly Buddhistic subtlety, hardly gladdened by a gentle comparison of which none of these 55 Veyyākaraṇāni is deprived.

IV.

Therefore we can sum up the whole KHANDHA-VAGGO as follows :

(I.) Khandha-S. XXII.	15 vaggos (3 Paññāsa)	158 suttas
(II.) Rādha-S. XXIII.	4 vaggos	46 „
(III.) Dīṭṭhi-S. XXIV.	1 vaggio 18 4 gamanas 96	114 suttantas
(IV.) Okkantika-S. XXV.	10 titles	10 suttas
(V.) Uppāda-S. XXVI.	10 titles	13 „
(VI.) Kilesa-S. XXVII.	10 titles	10 „
(VII.) Sāriputta-S. XXVIII.	10 titles	10 „
(VIII.) Nāga-S. XXIX.	14 titles	50 suttantas
(IX.) Supanna-S. XXX.	10 titles	46 „
(X.) Gandhabba-S. XXXI.	10 titles	112 „
(XI.) Valāha-S. XXXII.	10 titles	57 „

(XII.) Vacchagotta-S.
XXXIII.	11 titles	55 suttantas
(XIII.) Jhāna (or Samādhi)
S. XXXIV.	10 titles	55 „
Total		733

If I am not mistaken, the whole consists of 733 distinct texts, Suttas and Suttantas (or Veyyakaraṇāni), to which I have adapted, as before, the titles supplied by the Uddānas, except in case of exuberant multiplication, and including between () those which were not directly borrowed from the Uddānas.

V.

Several texts of this division are mere repetitions of or adaptations to texts already met with. Thus 91 and 92 of the Khandha-S. differ only by the title from 21 and 22 of the Rāhula-S. (XVIII.) in the Nidāna-vaggo; 115 of the same is to be compared with 16 of the Nidāna-S. The suttas 59 (Pañca) and 61 (Āditta) refer to some of the first speeches of the Buddha.

Twenty-three gāthas occur in this division, all to be found in the Khandha-S., viz., two alone, in 8 and 79, the others concatenated, two in 22, four in 78, seven in 95, eight in 76.

VI.

The MSS. which I used are the same as before: B, the Burmese MS. of Paris; S¹, the Sinhalese MS. of Copenhagen; S², the Sinhalese MS. of Paris. S³, which is the Sinhalese MS. of London (British Museum), I could not reach. The useful help of the commentary, which assisted me much in the preceding volumes, has unfortunately failed me for this one. I had no MS. of it at my disposal.

I express once more my thanks to Mr. Bruun, the Director of the Royal Library at Copenhagen, for his kindness in allowing me the use of the Sinhalese MS. S¹.

VII.

I had hoped not to have to refer again to the discrepancies between the MSS. ; but I cannot avoid making one or two remarks. The repetition and multiplication of the texts, or as it is said in Pāli, the vittharetabbam, is sometimes a cause of perplexity. I hoped to have steered clear of these difficulties, except in the case, above referred to, of the Ditthi-S. One difference in the arrangement of the text, although pointed out in the notes, ought also to be noticed here; 151, 152 (of the Khandha-S.), according to the Burmese MS., are 155, 156 according to the Sinhalese MS. Nos. 155, 156 in that MS. becoming 151, 152. The blunders of the copyists, when they transpose only lines, deserve a little attention, they deserve some more when whole leaves are displaced. A strange example of this occurs in S¹, the Kilesa- and Nāga-S., being sadly carved about and intermixed (owing, probably, to the giddiness of the scribe who confused two leaves) in such a manner that the text is unintelligible. I pointed out the fact to Mr. Fausbøll; but I mention it here for the benefit of scholars who may venture to refer to this MS.

As before, I have preferred, in most cases, the shortest abbreviation, generally indicating where the text is more developed. I remind my readers that the symbols ||pa|| ||la||, peculiar to the Burmese MS., point out the abridgments as they are in that MS., the text being complete or less abbreviated in the Sinhalese ones.

At the end of this volume, as of the preceding ones, three indices are subjoined: 1. To the proper names. 2. To the titles of the suttas. 3. To the beginning of the gāthas.

VIII.

In the introduction to the last volume, I had expressed (p. xiii) the purpose of drawing up a list of words which are written differently in the Burmese and Sinhalese MSS., especially as to the letters which are doubled or left single. I have occasionally pointed out these differences in the notes to this volume, but as the list would include many words which are quoted at the foot of the pages, it would, therefore, be of little utility, and I think I may delay the publication of it, more especially as Professor Rhys Davids and Mr. Carpenter have given such a list at the end of the Introduction to the Sumaṅgala.
